

Do not mess with WI do not call law! We signed up because we are tired of having meals and even bedtime interrupted by phone calls selling things we do not want. If we want something we are glad to call the company and ask for it and would appreciate being left aloneo otherwise. There are enough interuptions in life without unwanted phone calls. Please leave us some privacy!